

A Storekeeper Says:

"A lady came into my store lately and said: 'I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was something about it that made it so different from any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost.'"

The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a kettle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now—she knows.

Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table to find out that you can't eat. Just light a New Perfection Stove and immediately the heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smell, no outside heat, no drudgery in the kitchen where one of these stoves is used.

Cautious Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

New Perfection Oil Cook-stove

It has a Cabinet Top with a shelf for keeping plates and food hot. The nickel finish, with the bright blue of the burners, makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

Owners of Dogs!

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Alexandria, Va., June 11, 1910.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species should come forward on or before JUNE TWENTY-EIGHTH, 1910, and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 28th of June all persons owning or harboring dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of $3.00 or $2.00.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court. In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses should do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their license to the Auditor.

Attention is also called to the fact that while the payment of a license tax is required by the laws of the city, whether a dog is kept on the premises of the owner at all times or not, yet the payment of such tax does not entitle the dog to the unrestricted use of the streets and alleys of the city, both day and night, for it is provided by law that "The Mayor, in addition, at any and all times, in his discretion, by proclamation, shall declare that all such dogs as above licensed shall be securely muzzled, and if any such dogs be found running at large during the continuance of such proclamation without the required muzzle they shall be seized by the police force or other persons designated by the Mayor for such purposes and conveyed to a suitable place and destroyed."

FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

The following is a copy of Section 51 of the License Law: "On every dog, regardless of sex, one dollar and fifty cents."

Feet Tired-- So Tired?

TIZ Makes Sick Feet Well No Matter What Ails Them.

TIZ acts at once and makes tired, aching, swollen feet remarkably fresh and sore proof. It's the sure remedy, you know, for everything that gets the matter with your feet. It's for sore feet and for swollen, hot, aching feet, and for corns, callouses and bunions, too.

"For years I have been troubled with pain and tender feet, suffered intense pain. Have had the assistance of physicians without relief. I bought a box of TIZ, which worked a perfect cure, as it has with a great many of my friends. I would not be without it. All it requires is to be known to be universally used."

A. F. Drexler, Chicago. "TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous excretions which bring on soreness of the feet, and it is the only remedy that does TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet."

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person. TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25 cents per box or it will be sent you direct if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 24.

His Treasurer Knew.

He who goes into politics must remember what he is recorded to have said, for it is the habit of the sharp angled public to search out past utterances and hold the candidate responsible for them. John Burns, says Mr. Grubb in his life of that labor leader, once made the slip of remarking that no man was worth more than $500 a year. Accordingly, when he became a cabinet member with a salary of $2,000, he was obviously open to attack. When he first met his constituents at Battersea after he was made president of the local government board a candid friend recalled the statement about a man's worth by calling out in the middle of his speech:

"What about that 'ere salary of £2,000?"

Mr. Burns was equal to the occasion.

"That is the recognized trade union rate for the job," was his apt reply. "If I took less I would be a black-leg."

"What yer gorn' ter do with the £1,500 over?" pursued the inquisitive questioner.

"For details," answered Mr. Burns, "apply to my treasurer, Mr. Burns."

One of Dr. Hale's Jokes.

When he was quite a young man the late Dr. Edward Everett Hale played a little joke on some girls who were members of a party with whom he was summing on the Massachusetts coast.

All these girls were reading the same exciting novel, and one day at dinner it was a leading topic. Knowing that none of them had finished it, Hale, unknown to them, carried it away with him the next morning when he went to the city. On the train he wrote an absurd conclusion to the novel, laying the final scene at the summer resort.

Carrying this bogus conclusion to a publisher, a friend of his, he had it printed in type, and then, carefully removing the bona fide conclusion, he pasted in his own. On his return he placed the book on the piazza and waited. The book which spread over a girl's face as she read that last chapter was, Dr. Hale declared, worth going far to see—Woman's Home Companion.

The Flying Dutchman.

The Flying Dutchman was a ship which was sometimes visible from various points of land, but more particularly from the Cape of Good Hope, in very stormy weather. The story runs that her captain once swore so fearful an oath that as a punishment for his blasphemy he was condemned to beat about the oceans until the day of judgment. The Flying Dutchman was never known to get into port and was generally seen sailing under full canvas before a strong wind. The myth is generally understood to have had its origin in the waterspout, which in its distance resembles a sailing vessel.

Very Fortunate.

One evening just after dinner a young husband of Indianapolis was in accordance with his custom, giving his better half the gist of the news when suddenly he laid down the paper with this exclamation: "By George! Here's an account telling how during the recent storm off the New England coast a ship loaded with passengers went ashore. Why, that vessel belonged to my uncle Tom in Portland."

"How fortunate!" returned the young wife. "And just think how glad those passengers were to get to dry land!"—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

The Poor Milkman.

A family living in an eastern city found a good deal of cream on a bottle of milk which had been standing overnight, and when the driver called in the morning the pleased servant held it up to the light and said, "Look here, I have never seen anything like this before on your milk."

The man looked at it for a moment, scratched his head and replied, "Well, I don't know what's the matter, but you can throw it out, and I'll give you a fresh bottle in its place."

Rebuked.

Higgins—How is it you are always idling about? I never see you when you have anything to do. Wiggins—The fact is it takes so much of my time looking after other folks' business I have none left for looking after my own. Don't you find something like the same trouble yourself?—Boston Transcript.

The Best Ever.

Gentlemen—But I am afraid he wouldn't make a good watchdog. Man (with bull terrier)—Not a good watchdog. Why? "Lor' bless your 'eart, it was only last week that this very animal had a burglar down by the throat and beat his brains out with his tail!"—London Tatler.

What Struck Him.

"Did anything about the defendant strike you as being out of the ordinary?" asked the judge of the plaintiff in a case of assault and battery. "Yes, your honor," was the reply. "What was it?" queried the judge. "His fist," answered the plaintiff.—Chicago News.

Rain and the Scot.

Dr. John Watson (Jau MacLaren) says: "Never ask a Scotchman if it is raining. I have never heard a Scot admit that the rain is falling. What I have heard him say is that if it goes on as it is now it will turn out wet."

Mutual Surprise.

She—When I married you I had no idea that you would stay away from home so much. He—Well, neither had I.—Life.
